

University City Plane Crash Remembrance Day

Presented by Councilmember Joe LaCava
December 8, 2021

WHEREAS, on the anniversary of the 2008 FA-18 crash in University City, we choose to honor the four individuals who lost their lives, those who sustained injuries from the event, those who suffered damage to their homes; and

WHEREAS, the devastation caused by, and memory of this accident continues to affect residents to this day not only in University City, but across the City of San Diego; and

WHEREAS, this event reminds us of the fragility of human life and how everything can change in an instant; and

WHEREAS, the City of San Diego extends appreciation for the firefighters, medical workers, 9-1-1 operators, neighbors, and all those who contributed their help and efforts in the aftermath of the event; and

WHEREAS, the City of San Diego extends appreciation to the community for planting 4 trees in University Gardens Park as a memorial to the 4 lives lost; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT PROCLAIMED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the City of San Diego, does hereby proclaim December 8, 2021, to be “University City Plane Crash Remembrance Day” in the City of San Diego.